The students were delighted to listen to Dr. Parul Patel as she guided the budding homoeopaths on this occasion & shared her experiences with homoeopathic treatment & her expectations from homoeopaths as well. Then came the most awaited moment of the day for which all the students were waiting for; Mr. Dr. Sudhir Joshi took over the control of stage & delivered an enlightening speech for about half an hour in which he covered almost every topic pertaining to the science of homoeopathy, scope of homoeopathy for the treatment of diseases, scopes for homoeopaths in various sectors of occupation like setting own practice, in field of clinical research, hospital management, competitive exams like GPSC & UPSC. He completed his session with thanking the trustees of Parul University for giving him an opportunity to speak & for inviting him to the program. The student gave him a huge round of applause as he finished his speech.
