Roll no : 99

4th BHMS (2025 -2026)

Introduction:

An educational visit to Dr. R. P. Patel Institute of Homoeopathic Research & Education was successfully organized by Rajkot Homoeopathic Medical College for 4th BHMS students and MD scholars on 12th December 2025, in accordance with the curriculum guidelines prescribed by the National Commission for Homoeopathy (NCH).

Objectives of the Visit:

The objectives of the educational visit were:

- To enhance clinical exposure of students.
- To strengthen academic and practical understanding of homoeopathy.
- To provide insight into homoeopathic research and institutional functioning.
- To bridge the gap between theoretical knowledge and practical application.

Faculty Accompanying the Visit:

The educational visit was conducted under the able guidance of the following faculty members:

Dr. Jay Solanki – Department of Anatomy

Dr. Raxit Ramavat – Department of Materia Medica

Dr. Shreya Joshi – Department of Organon of Medicine

Dr. Kripaba Rana – Department of Repertory (UG)

Dr. Parth Dave – Department of Repertory (PG)

Guidance by Head of Department:

The students received immense academic guidance, encouragement, and motivation from Dr. Prakash Joshi, Head of the Department of Repertory. His valuable insights and interactive discussions greatly enriched the learning experience of the students.

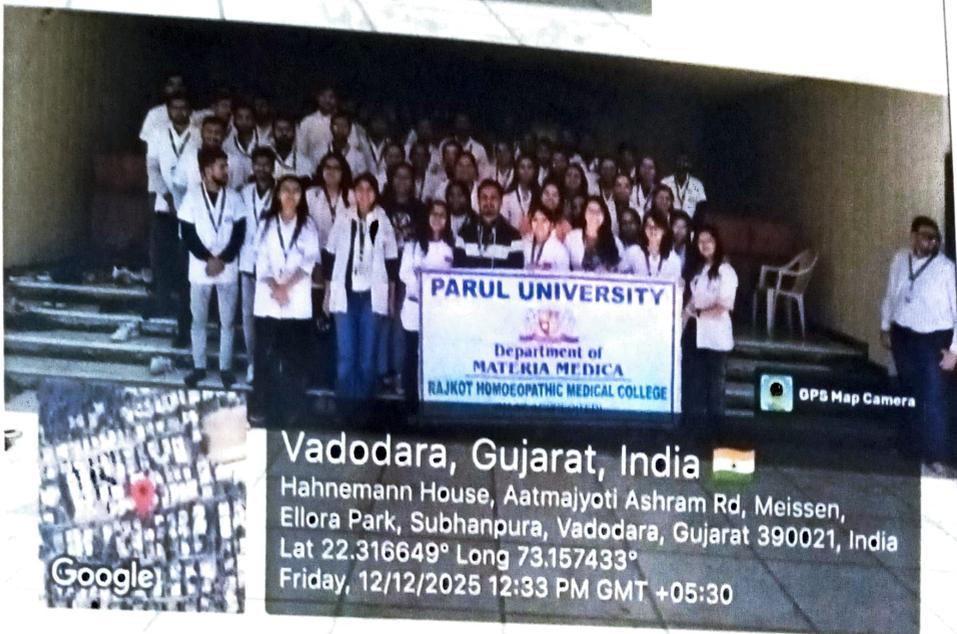

Activities and Observations:

During the visit, students actively interacted with faculty members, observed academic and research facilities, and gained exposure to homoeopathic education, research methodologies, and clinical practices. The visit provided practical understanding of the application of repertory in clinical and research settings.

Learning Outcome:

The educational visit helped students:

- Improve their practical and clinical understanding
- Gain exposure to homoeopathic research work
- Understand institutional academic functioning
- Develop a professional approach towards homoeopathic practice

Conclusion:

Overall, the educational visit was highly informative, inspiring, and academically fruitful. It contributed significantly to the holistic development of students and strengthened their foundation as future homoeopathic physicians and researchers.
